

Autumn's Approach Enlivens Society; Many Informal Parties Are Planned

By FRANCES DICKSON

ALREADY the approaching autumn season is influencing the social activities of El Paso and a decided impetus has been given parties and entertainments within the last week or so. Indeed, the only effect of the hot weather on local festivities seems to have been one whereby parties become more informal, but not less numerous. The pleasing custom of entertaining out-of-town visitors and El Paso girls and boys who spend most of their time away at school, serves to provide excuses for many kinds of delightful affairs, but who needs an excuse, anyway?

Lawn parties continue to be the favorite, though dances and bridge parties and teas are too numerous to count and are equally enjoyable. The social calendar for next week is not yet definitely planned; parties, as they have been all summer, being given on a moment's notice and usually most informally.

Mrs. William J. Quigley will entertain Wednesday afternoon with a tea in honor of Miss Caroline Plumb. Mrs. Stacy Hinkle will be hostess on the same day to the Wednesday Luncheon club.

Misses Mary and Grace Ginther Give Pretty Bridge Party In Their Home

ONE of the many pretty affairs given this summer was in honor of Miss Elizabeth Woodson, of Kentucky, who is the guest of Miss Marjorie and Miss Mildred Pew. The luncheon was given Saturday by Miss Myra Pearson, 905 Nevada street. The dining room and tables were lovely with clusters of pink asters arranged in beautiful baskets and vases. A color scheme of pink and green was also cleverly carried out in the menu. Miss Pearson was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Richard V. Pearson and Mrs. W. F. B. McCall. The guest list included Misses Elizabeth Woodson, Marjorie and Mildred Pew, Jean Gilchrist, Gardner Leeper, Marjorie Crane, Katherine Kilburn, Elita Collins, Mary Heermann, Maurice Garrett, Betty Safford, Mary Maguffin, Harriet Heermann, Elizabeth Reaney, Katherine Reaney, Nellie May Beauchamp, Imogene Leavelle, Martha Patterson, Florence Calhoun, Grace Priest, Ledaia Kahn, Evelyn Ellison, Louise Cantrell, Aletha Coffin, Vilas Simmons, Mrs. J. C. Byars, Jr. and Gladys Hestig.

Miss Caroline Plumb, of 361 Upton avenue, is hostess this afternoon to the C. J. Bridge club at its semi-monthly meeting. An ice course will be served. The guest for the afternoon is Miss Dorothy Quigley. The members are the Misses Helen Lorenz, Dorothy Leeper, Elizabeth Galt, Frances Lockett, Harriet Heermann, Jane Gilchrist, Katherine Earle and Gladys Booth.

Marries An Oklahoma Man

MRS. SHERWOOD R. CHASE, of Tulsa, Okla., formerly Mrs. Alma Collier Porter, of El Paso. The marriage of Mrs. Porter to Mr. Chase, of Tulsa, took place July 15, in Kansas City.

About El Pasoans.

Mrs. Emma Reid and her grandson, Robert Reid, of 3111 Port Boulevard, will leave Monday for an extended visit with relatives in northern Louisiana.

Mr. and Mrs. Weyth Deak, of 3221 Federal street, Manhattan Heights, announce the birth of a son, Weyth Deak, Jr., born July 27. The young man weighs eight pounds.

Miss Alta Skidmore was in El Paso for a day while on her way to her home in Pittsburgh, Pa., from a month spent on the Pacific coast. Miss Skidmore expects to return to spend the winter here.

Rev. Percy Knickerbocker and Dr. Milo Atkinson, of El Paso, are two of the five ministers selected from over the southwest to do the preaching at the El Paso camp meeting at Skillman grove, 16 miles west of Fort Davis, beginning August 12, and continuing six days.

Forrest Hinswanger today met his brother, Tolstoy Hinswanger, from whom he parted in El Paso in 1914, upon his enlistment in the navy. The latter arrived in El Paso from Manila, 271 miles southwest of Juarez, where he has been employed as an electrician by the El Paso Milling Co. since July 2, having worked for this company under chief engineer Kramer for several years.

Miss Mabel Rowden will accompany a party of friends on a camping trip to the Rio Grande mouth and spend two weeks. Miss Rowden's brother, E. E. Rowden, who is well known in El Paso, and who recently disposed of his holdings in the upper valley and has been spending the past two months on the Pacific coast, will leave next week for Ohio, to visit relatives for several months.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Wood were in Chamberino from El Paso for a visit with Mrs. Wood's sister, Mrs. Welch McGuire, and family. While there the party motored up to Dripping Springs in the Organ mountains, for a camping trip of several days. Mr. and Mrs. Wood are leaving next week for a trip east, where they will visit in Chicago and New York and return to Texas by water.

El Paso students are well represented at the San Marcos Normal college. The following students in the summer normal have been and will be connected with the El Paso or Yalata school systems: Misses Marion Jensen, Loula M. Hammett, and Mrs. Pearl V. Crowley, in the Yalata schools; and Misses Marguerite Sloan, Betty Luther, Lorena Beckjeda, and Mrs. Lily S. Howard in the El Paso public schools. Misses Lillian and Helen Bourland are also El Paso students in the summer school.

El Pasoans Away.

Announcement

Beginning September 1st, we find it necessary to increase our prices for cleaning and pressing men's two-piece suits from $1.25 to $1.50, and for three-piece suits from $1.50 to $1.75.

The steady increase in the cost of materials and labor during the past eight years of approximately 100 percent has forced us to make this slight increase in our prices to enable us to maintain the same high standard of service in the future as has been in the past.
